

Number of Violation for Each Plant

(*: Data up to the end of June 2019)

Violation

The Atomic Energy Council's (AEC) enforcement program is based on the recognition that violations occur in a variety of activities and have varying levels of significance. The manner in which the AEC processes a violation is intended to reflect the significance of the violation and the circumstances involved.